Carew Castle stands close to the water's edge on a small creek of Milford Haven. The oldest portion of the present building is in the neighbourhood of the Gatehouse and dates possibly from the time of Henry I., when Carew formed part of the dowry of Nesta, the wife of Gerald de Windsor, Countess of Pembroke. In this building Henry of Richmond was entertained in 1485 on his way to Bosworth Field. The Castle was held for the King during the Civil War, but taken in 1644 and dismantled.
